

BARTRAM DAYS

At Paynes Prairie Preserve State Park

Although the scenery may have changed dramatically in the nearly 250 years since his first visit to Florida, the path remains, and thanks to the work of scholars, historians, and Bartram enthusiasts, the path is easier to follow today than ever before.

Join us as we are transported back to 1774 when William Bartram was on the great Alachua Savannah. Visitors can meet William Bartram, Trader Job Wiggins, and Ahaya-The Cowkeeper.

Date: Friday, May 3rd & Saturday, 4th, 2024

Opens May 3rd for schools, all welcome

Time: 9:00am - 4:00pm

Location: 100 Savannah BLVD
Micanopy, FL 32667

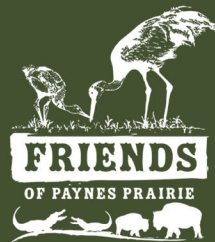

FREE to the public with park entry fee.

PARK ENTRY FEE:

$4 per person
OR
$6 for 2-8 people

Event Sponsored by:

William came to Florida in 1765 and again in 1774. His explorations and subsequent writings had a major effect on settlement and subsequent development of Florida.

Live Music, Historical Re-enactments & Family Fun!